PROPERTY HIRE GUIDE
16 NEW STREET / LE MOULIN DE QUÉTIVEL / GRÈVE DE LECQ BARRACKS
LE CÂTEL FORT / LE DON HILTON
From the Island’s only working watermill to the last remaining example of an early Georgian townhouse, the National Trust for Jersey has the perfect property to hire for your special occasion. Whether you are organising a formal dinner or a barbecue, all our iconic buildings offer a picturesque backdrop to your event. All funds generated through property hire support the Trust’s work to conserve 2% of Jersey’s land and 24 buildings in its care.

16 NEW STREET

GEORGIAN HOUSE

Conveniently located at the centre of St. Helier, this Georgian townhouse which has been meticulously restored to its former glory, was originally constructed as a family home in the 1730s. The elegantly furnished panelled rooms, embellished with fine antiques and paintings, lend themselves to a variety of events including drinks receptions, private dining, meetings and presentations.

16 New Street is also licensed for small civil wedding ceremonies.

16 New Street at Christmas; abundant period decorations, open fires and candlelight ensure that your event is truly memorable.

LE MOULIN DE QUÉTIVEL

WATER MILL

The only remaining working mill in Jersey, sits at the end of a long meadow in St. Peter’s Valley, through which a gently flowing stream meanders.

The ground floor consists of two rooms, one with a substantial fireplace, the other opening onto the meadow and herb garden.

This historic structure and its idyllic setting makes for a delightful environment for a special drinks reception.

Hire of whole property: £300
Built in the early 19th century to house British troops defending the Island against French invasion, the Barracks were sympathetically restored by the Trust in the 1970s.

Room 4, with its high ceilings and large windows, now provides a flexible space for meetings and exhibitions, with a delightful view out to sea.

Rates
24-hour hire: £150

Known colloquially as the ‘white house’, this 18th military guardhouse is located on the sea wall at the heart of St. Ouen’s Bay.

Inspirational coastal views add to the ambience of any occasion. No matter the weather, Le Don Hilton will offer cherished memories for the rest of your lives.

Licensed for wedding ceremonies.

We chose 16 New Street as the venue for our Civil Partnership; it was everything we wanted and more. The atmosphere was intimate, charming and romantic. It’s an enchanting place.’

NICK CARVER & NATHAN NIRMALAN

I hired Le Câtel Fort which overlooks the breath-taking Grève De Lecq Bay and headland. It is a secluded spot but only a short walk to a couple of great restaurants and bars... I can highly recommend it.’

GINA RIVE

We spent the evening with friends and family partying at the remarkable 16 New Street, which really did live up to the occasion. My partner’s favourite book is ‘Pride and Prejudice’, so she was able to pretend to be Lizzie for the evening. Luckily, there was no lake from which I was expected to emerge!’
